SUMMARY

I am an aspiring Frontend Developer, currently learning with Re:Coded, an esteemed tech talent organization. Passionate and determined, I'm dedicated to refining my frontend skills and contributing to the evolving digital landscape.

- At Re:Coded, I've learned from experts and aim to create dynamic, responsive, and user-centric applications. I'm eager to master modern frameworks like React, Angular, or Vue.js, staying updated with industry trends.

Collaboration drives me. I thrive in diverse teams, communicating effectively and turning ideas into seamless solutions. Challenges inspire me to think creatively, pushing the boundaries of frontend development.

My journey is ongoing, I have lead 2 teams in 2 different Projects, and worked on another project by a different lead, fueled by continuous improvement and dedication.
Looking for an ambitious Frontend Developer? Let's connect! I'm open to opportunities that let me apply and expand my skills, while positively impacting the community.

Let's shape the web's future together! Reach me on LinkedIn, email (angeldilmi@gmail.com), or Discord (hashara). Excited to create captivating web experiences and connect.

Let's code, create, and make a difference!
